

AUGUST 2025, ISSUE

The PAC Newsletter

MANAGING EDITOR'S NOTE

Dear Reader,

Welcome to the August 2025 issue of the PAC Newsletter.

Here are some updates on the major events and activities that occurred at the University during the month.

As we wait for the commencement of the new academic year, in the coming month, let us continue to trust in God's guidance, knowing that our efforts, when aligned with His will, will lead to success.

*Wishing you a fulfilling & blessed
Academic Year*

CONNECTION & COLLABORATION

PAC UNIVERSITY & BIPS

These photos were taken after a fruitful meeting to discuss a Memorandum of Understanding aimed at fostering collaboration in the delivery of academic programs, between Pan Africa Christian University, led by Prof. Diphus Chemorion, and Baptist Institute of Professional Studies of Cameroon, led by Dr. Helga Jam.

FACULTY & STUDENT EXCHANGE PROGRAM

AT CALVARY WORSHIP CENTER

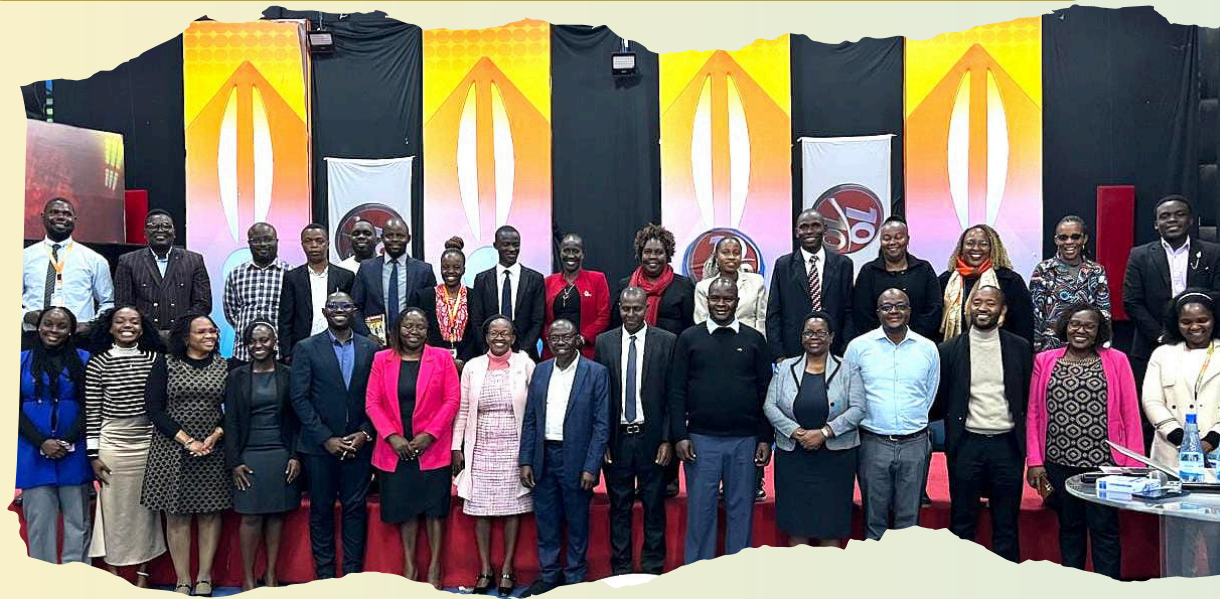

AT PROF IMBENZI'S RESIDENCE

A transformative journey through the professional development program for PAC University students in collaboration with Trinity Western University, Canada from 15th July 2025 - 6th August 2025. The program was a reminder of the transformative potential of collaboration - not only among institutions but also among faculty teams, and individuals.

Internship Placement Consultative Forum

On 4th August 2025, Dr. Nancy Kungu, the HOD, Department of Communication, Languages and Linguistics, attended the Royal Media Services (RMS) Internship Placement Consultative Forum. Some of the key highlights included:

- Addressing the existing media industry-curriculum gaps.
- Criteria for recruitment of interns.
- Recommendations on scheduling of assessments of the interns.
- Strengthening linkages by exploring potential avenues for partnerships and collaborations between RMS and the training institutions.

Citizen News Feature

In line with our ongoing efforts to enhance brand visibility and attract prospective students, PAC University recently partnered with Citizen TV to run a two-week TV commercial promoting the upcoming September 2025 intake, aired between 5th and 18th of August during prime time breaks at 7.00 PM and 9.00 PM.

#WhereLeadersAreMade

Charting the course with conviction and grace

On 15th August 2025, PAC University Members of Senate and Management Board convened at Eden Restaurant for a strategic meeting that integrated planning, reflection, and prayer. The team assessed institutional progress, reaffirmed shared values, and sought divine guidance for the journey ahead, embracing leadership with clarity, conviction, and compassion.

Celebration of the Graduated Students

Celebration of students who have graduated with a Certificate and Diploma in Transformational Leadership at Ilchamus in Marigat, on 12th August 2025.

Leadership and Academic Performance Webinar

The Department of Leadership hosted a free public webinar on “Results-Based Leadership and Academic Performance in Secondary Schools in Kenya” on 8th August 2025, from 5:00 PM to 7:00 PM (EAT).

This session was moderated by Dr. Solomon Munyao (HoD) and facilitated by Dr. Clare Gakenia and Dr. Edward Nzinga, who are both faculty members in the department.

Qualitative Data Analysis Webinar

The Leadership Department planned and held a virtual qualitative data analysis webinar for all PhD students on Thursday 14th August 2025, between 6:00pm and 8:00pm. The facilitator of the webinar was Dr. Susan Were from Jomo Kenyatta University of Agriculture and Technology who is a specialist in this field.

The webinar covered the theoretical part of qualitative data analysis while the practical part will be done shortly. Before this webinar, another one on quantitative data analysis using SPSS was conducted by Dr. Solomon Munyao on Thursday 31st July 2025, at the same time. The aim of these webinars is to prepare our PhD students in their research journey.

Unmasked - Family Discipleship Conference 2025

During the Unmasked Family Discipleship Conference (FDC) 2025 at CITAM Valley Road, Rev. David Ewagata, navigated the topic “Why Gen-Z fear marriage” on Thursday, 28th August 2025.

While in the same venue, our marketing team took the opportunity to showcase our products on 28th August 2025 and 29th August 2025, engaging attendees with enthusiasm and excellence.

Mental Health Awareness Workshop

On 28th August 2025, Dr. Ruth Kamunyu conducted a Mental Health Awareness workshop at PCEA Immanuel Church, Gatundu.

The workshop was organized by the Parish Council Women's Guild in collaboration with the Moderator of Gatundu Presbytery. In attendance were the members of the Parish Women's Guild.

The workshop aimed at creating awareness about the importance of psychosocial wellbeing of women as key players in family health. Dr. Kamunyu emphasized the need for women to constantly take care of their physical, psychological, social and spiritual wellbeing.
